

CSS HOMEMAKER

Are you an out-going, flexible and compassionate person? Cassellholme is providing the necessary training for positions available in our Community Support Services [CSS] Program. You would provide much-needed assistance, such as light housekeeping and laundry services to vulnerable people in your community. You'll earn competitive wages [$17.65/hr + 14% in lieu of benefits + 4% vacation pay] and be supported by a team of Cassellholme professionals.

TO JOIN OUR TEAM, YOU'LL NEED:

- Flexibility – hours will vary
- Successful completion of the training
- CPIC – Police Record and Vulnerable Sector check
- Driver's Licence, reliable vehicle and a willingness to travel in North Bay and in rural areas of Nipissing District
- Ontario Secondary School Diploma or equivalent and French are assets

RESUMES WILL BE ACCEPTED UNTIL FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 24TH, 2021:
